

Pat has a B.A. in Paralegal Studies from Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College and is a member of Lambda Epsilon Chi. She is an Indiana Registered Paralegal, an affiliate member of the Indiana and the American Bar Associations, and a nationally known parent advocate with over 35 years of experience helping families.

The author of Special Education: Plan and Simple, Special Education, The Commentary series, Pat also has numerous articles published on the Wrightslaw website. Pat has been a member of the Wrightslaw Speakers Bureau since 2005 and has presented on special education law and advocacy from coast to coast.

Pat is a charter member and past Director of the Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates (COPAA) and a faculty member of the Institute of Special Education Advocacy at the College of William and Mary Law School in Williamsburg, Virginia from 2010 through its closing in 2021. She currently works as a paralegal in the Education Division of Connell, Michael, Kerr Law Firm in Carmel, Indiana.