Co-Sponsored by

SC Department of Education
Office of Exceptional Children

Peter & Pam Wright

In the early 1950's, Pete Wright was diagnosed with dyslexia and Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD). After graduating from Randolph-Macon College, he worked in juvenile training schools and juvenile courts. In 1972, he was honored as Virginia's "Juvenile Probation Officer of the Year." In December 1977, Pete graduated from T.C. Williams Law School at the University of Richmond.

Pete represented Shannon Carter, a South Carolina child with dyslexia, before the U.S. Supreme Court and achieved a landmark victory.

Pam Wright is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families for more than 30 years. She earned a Master's degree in Clinical Psychology from East Carolina University. For ten years, she worked as a clinical psychologist in North Carolina. She returned to graduate school and in 1985, earned a Master's Degree in Clinical Social Work, graduating summa cum laude.

Pam sees clients in mental health centers, family guidance and psychiatric clinics, correctional institutions, hospitals, and schools.

Pete and Pam authored the best selling special education books, Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, and Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy. Pam is the editor and web page designer of their special education websites. As a team, Pete and Pam provide comprehensive special education advocacy training.

This two day workshop's primary teaching tools will be two books, Wrightslaw: Special Education Law and Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy. (Retail value $29.95)

Both books are necessary to participate in the workshop. You may order Special Education Law when you register. Please note that the 2nd person registration fee does not include any books.

The registration fee includes Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy but does not include the cost of Wrightslaw: Special Education Law.

*Limited scholarships are available for
TEACHER AND PARENT TEAMS.*
