

Peter W.D. Wright, E sq.

Pamela Darr Wright, M. A.,
M.S.W.

Peter Wright represented Shannon Carter in the landmark U. S. Supreme Court case of South Carolina's Florence County School District IV v. Carter, 510 U.S. 7, (1993). He provides special education advocacy training to parents, advocates and educators and speaks at legal education seminars around the U.S. about representing children with disabilities.

Pamela Wright is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families for more than 30 years. Her training and experience in clinical psychology and clinical social work give her a unique perspective on parent-child-school dynamics, problems, and solutions.

OurSpeakers

Peter W. D. Wright, E sq. and Pamela Darr Wright, M.A., M.S.W. are loyal advocates of special education families. Their powerful presentation will inspire us to advocate for our children while we learn to maneuver through the maze of special education legal rights and responsibilities.

The seminar's location to be announced
