

Lehigh University's College of Education

Presents

Special Education Law Seminar

Current Issues and Answers

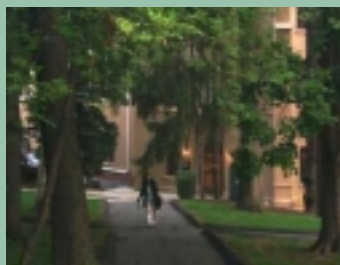

Peter Wright, Esq.
Keynote Speaker

Sunday, June 24, 2001

Avoid Litigation: Walking in their Shoes

Monday, June 25, 2001

Autism Cases: New Challenges

LEHIGH UNIVERSITY'S MOUNTAINTOP CAMPUS
JUNE 24 - 29, 2001

Special Education Law Seminar: Current Issues and Answers

June 24 thru June 29, 2001, on its mountaintop campus, in Bethlehem, PA. This one-week intensive update concentrates on analysis of legislation, regulations, and case laws relating to the education of students with disabilities. Topics will include the current IDEA and Section 504 regulations; eligibility categories and cases; least restrictive environment; IEP issues, including related services; discipline, including FBA's and BIP's; and remedies, including compensatory education and money damages. Presenters include attorneys with national reputations, such as the keynote speaker, Attorney Peter Wright of Deltaville, VA; Bruce Goldstein of Buffalo, NY; Deborah Mattison of Birmingham, AL; Kathy Mehfoud of Richmond VA; Rebecca Spar of Hackensack, NJ; Charlie and Julie Weatherly of Atlanta, GA; and Perry A. Zirkel, Iacocca Professor of Education at Lehigh University.

For registration information contact:

Theresa Freeman, College of Education, 111 Research Drive, Room A-219, Bethlehem, PA 18015-4794, phone 610-758-6563

e-mail: specprog@lehigh.edu

Or Visit:

www.lehigh.edu/~specprog/Special_Ed_Law.htm