About Pam & Pete:

Peter Wright has practiced special education law since the 1970's. In 1993 he represented Shannon Carter before the U.S. Supreme Court in Florence County v. Shannon Carter (510 U.S. 7). Pete was drawn to a career in special education law because of his own experience in school. He is now one of the leading special education attorneys in the nation.

Pamela Darr Wright is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families for over 30 years. Her training and experience in clinical psychology and clinical social work give her a unique perspective on parent-child-school dynamics, problems & solutions.

For years, parents, educators, advocates, and attorneys have trusted Wrightslaw.com for accurate, reliable information about special education law and advocacy for children with disabilities.

Wrightslaw.com includes thousands of articles, cases, & free resources on dozens of special education topics.

Pete and Pam Wright are the authors of :

Wrightslaw: Special Education Law
Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy
Wrightslaw: No Child Left Behind
Wrightslaw: IDEA 2004
