Peter Wright has practiced special education law since the 1970's. In 1993 he represented Shannon Carter before the U.S. Supreme Court in Florence County v. Shannon Carter (510 U.S. 7.)

Pete was drawn to a career in Special Education law because of his own experience in school. He is now one of the leading special education attorneys in the nation.

Pamela Darr Wright is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families for more than 30 years. Her training and experience in clinical psychology and clinical social work give her a unique perspective on Parent-child- school dynamics, problems and solutions.

Wrightslaw programs are designed to meet the needs of parents, educators, health care providers, advocates and attorneys who represent children with disabilities regarding special education. The program is not disability specific.

SAFE is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization registered with the Pennsylvania Bureau of Charitable Organizations.
