

IEP PRO PARENTS

Are you a parent of a child with disabilities or special needs? Are you looking for a group where you can gain knowledge, training and skills to be an effective educational advocate for your child? Do you feel overwhelmed with the task of raising and education a child with special needs? Do you need a safe place to talk, vent, laugh, cry, brainstorm and share productive ways to excel in the world of special and misunderstood kids? Do you feel that you would benefit meeting other parents experiencing the same challenges you are going through?

Wrightslaw Special Education and Advocacy Workshop, a Wrightslaw training program with Pete and Pam Wright.

This four part series on special education law and advocacy will focus on four areas:

- * special education law, rights and responsibilities
- * tests and measurements to measure progress & regression
- * SMART IEPs
- * introduction to tactics & strategies for effective advocacy

Wrightslaw programs are designed to meet the needs of parents, educators, health care providers, advocates and attorneys who represent children with disabilities regarding special education. The program is not disability specific.
