Pete and Pam Wright Special Education Law and Advocacy Workshop

Thursday, October 25, 2007

McLean Bible Church 9 - 4:30 pm

Community Room C

8925 Leesburg Pike, McLean, VA

Pete Wright is an experienced and well-respected Virginia attorney whose law practice is devoted to assisting children with disabilities and their parents. He argued and won a landmark special education case before the U.S. Supreme Court. Wright has become an author, speaker, publisher, high-tech maven, and guru on special education law. He's part lawyer, part entrepreneur, and all passion.

This one-day special education law workshop for all disabilities focuses on:

- * Special education law, rights and privacy
- * Tests and measurements to measure progress and regression
- * SMART IEPs
- * Introduction to strategies and tactics for effective advocacy

Pamela Wright is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families for more than 30 years. Her training and experience in clinical psychology and clinical social work give her a unique perspective on parent-child-school dynamics, problems, and solutions.
