Peter W.D. Wright, Esq.

Pete Wright has represented children with disabilities for over 30 years. He represented Shannon Carter before the U. S. Supreme Court in Florence County School District IV v. Shannon Carter, 510 U. S. 7 (1993) where he won a landmark victory that has benefitted all children with disabilities. He and his wife, Pam, have written numerous best selling books to assist parents, advocates, educators, related service providers and attorneys.

The Wrights provide information and advice about educational law and advocacy at Wrightslaw.com, the #1 ranked special education website.

A variety of educational books and materials will be available for sale.

This conference is for parents, advocates, educators, related service providers, health care providers and attorneys who represent children with disabilities regarding special education. It will focus on:

- Special education law, rights and responsibilities
- Test and measurements to measure progress and regression
- SMART IEPs
- Introduction to tactics and strategies for effective advocacy

The goal of the workshop is for parents and others to have the knowledge and skills to advocate for children with disabilities and manage their emotions. Parents will learn how to become their child’s special education manager and expert .

Each workshop participant will receive the following books:

- ✓ Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, 2nd Ed.
- ✓ Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy, 2nd Ed.
- ✓ Wrightslaw: All About IEPs
- ✓ Wrightslaw: All About Tests & Assessments
