

HMEA's Autism Resource Central presents:

Wrightslaw Special Education and Advocacy Conference With Pete Wright, Esq.

Learn the tools you'll need to advocate for your child in the classroom

Pete Wright, Esq.

Thursday, October 27, 2016

Registration: 8AM – 9AM

Conference: 9AM – 4:30PM

Sturbridge Host Hotel & Conference Center

366 Main Street,
Sturbridge, Massachusetts 01566

This conference will give you the tools to be the advocate your child needs to succeed in life.

You'll learn:

- How to ask for—and receive!—evaluations and services that address speech, occupational therapy, psychological, neuropsychological, academic deficiencies. Tests and measurements 101.
- The federal laws that give you the right to request services for your child.
- How you can use key words to ignite action by teams of educators on behalf of your child.
- How to have the school district provide and pay for the services your child needs.
- Smart IEPs.
- How to build healthy working relationship with school personnel.

Designed to meet the needs of parents, educators, health care providers, advocates and attorneys and others who represent children with autism, learning and developmental disabilities. The program is not disability specific.

Educators, attorneys and social workers receive a certificate of attendance.
