SPEAKER

Peter Wright, Esq. is an attorney who represents children with special educational needs.

In second grade, Pete was diagnosed with learning disabilities including dyslexia, dysgraphia and ADHD. He was fortunate - his learning problems were identified early. His parents obtained intensive Orton-Gillingham remediation for him by Diana Hanbury King. Pete's determination to help children grew out of his own educational experiences.

In 1977, Pete graduated from T. C. Williams Law School at the University of Richmond.

On October 6, 1993, Pete gave oral argument before the United States Supreme Court in Florence County School District Four v. Shannon Carter, 510 U.S. 7 (1993). Thirty-four days later, the Court issued a unanimous decision for Shannon Carter. (Learn more about it at www.wrightslaw.com/law/caselaw/carter.links.htm" Florence County v. Shannon Carter)

He appeared as the parent's attorney in the award-winning DVD video, Surviving Due Process: When Parents and the School Board Disagree - Stephen Jeffers v. School Board (2004). Pete and Pam Wright are the founders of the #1 ranked website about special education law and advocacy.

Wrightslaw special education law & advocacy programs are designed to meet the needs of parents, health care providers, educators, advocates, and the attorneys who represent children with disabilities.

This advocacy training supports any disability.
