

PORTS OF CALL

Key West, Florida

An uninhibited playground at the southernmost point of North America. The home of Hemingway is a festive island of colorful bars and equally colorful characters in what may as well be the tropics. America's southern tip, where Harry Truman spent his summers playing poker and running the country, is a non-stop delight. Visit Hemingway's house where you'll find his original manuscripts. And while you're on the island be sure to sample its culinary treasures such as conch and Key Lime Pie.

Playa del Carmen/Cozumel

No longer the Caribbean's best-kept secret, the island draws increasing numbers of visitors, particularly divers, each year. Your cruise ship also stops in Playa del Carmen, a town of only 6,000 inhabitants located opposite Cozumel on the mainland. This port serves as a starting point for excursions to the Mayan ruins of Tulum on the Yucatan peninsula.

FUNDRAISER

There are a great number of parents in need, many who require financial assistance to access legal or professional help. Value Voyager in partnership with Carnival Cruise Lines will be matching funds and donating a percentage of revenues to establish a Special Education Resource Fund to assist parents in advocating for appropriate education for their children.

PRESENTERS

Pete Wright is an attorney who has represented children with disabilities for more than 20 years. His practice is devoted to helping children with special education needs. Pete struggled with learning disabilities, including dyslexia, dysgraphia and ADHD. His determination to help children grew out of his own educational experiences. In October, 1993, Pete successfully represented Shannon Carter before the United States Supreme Court in Florence County School District Four v. Shannon Carter. The Supreme Court issued their unanimous decision in 34 days.

Pam Wright is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families for more than 30 years. Her training and experience in clinical psychology and clinical social work give her a unique perspective on parent-child-school dynamics, problems and solutions. She sees clients in mental health care centers, family guidance and psychiatric clinics, correctional institutions, hospitals and schools.

Pete and Pam Wright provide comprehensive training programs about special education law, advocacy and related issues. Together they host a comprehensive web site www.wrightslaw.com. Pam Wright is the editor of The Special Education Advocate the online newsletter about special education legal and advocacy issues published by Wrightslaw.

They are the authors of Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, Wrightslaw Tactics & Strategy Manual and a soon to be released book on how to successfully advocate for your child.
