

About the Presenters:

Pete and Pam Wright provide special education law and advocacy training for parents, advocates, attorneys, educators, and others who want to ensure that children with disabilities receive quality special education programs. Pete Wright, Esq. is an attorney who represents children with special educational needs. His advocacy grew out of his personal educational experiences. Pam Wright, MA, MSW is a psychotherapist who has worked with children and families since the early 1970's. The Wright's are the founders of Wrightslaw. For more information, visit: www.wrightslaw.com

Leslie Walker-Hirsch, M. Ed., FAAMR is an internationally recognized educational consultant who specializes in social and sexual development for individuals with intellectual disabilities. She is a dynamic and stimulating lecturer and is the co-creator of the widely used CIRCLES curriculum series, multi-media teaching materials for improving social competence and judgment, that is designed especially to address the learning styles of youth and adults with cognitive disabilities. She teaches in the Graduate School of Educational Specialties at The University of New Mexico. For more information, visit: www.lesliewalker-hirsch.com.
