Camp Hear Me 2007

The Hear Me Foundation and Texas Parent to Parent are sponsoring 2 days of quality training with Pete and Pam Wright of Wrightslaw beginning Thursday, June 7, 2007. The June 7, 2007 training will be held from 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. at the Omni Austin Hotel Southpark at 4140 Governor's Row, Austin, TX 78744. Parent to Parent Registration will begin in March (www.txp2p.org) and it will be mandatory for Camp Hear Me parents to attend the first day of Parent to Parent training at the Omni in order to participate in the Camp Hear Me private and closed training session on Jun 9, 2007. This is a one time event whereby Hear Me and Pete and Pam Wright will provide a private session for parents and advocates only on Special Education Law and Advocacy Training in the state of Texas. This private session will be held in conjunction with Camp Hear Me 2007 at Peaceable Kingdom, Killeen, Texas from Friday, June 8 though Saturday, June 9, 2007.

Please note: You must register separately for each event.

The format for Camp Hear Me 2007 will be different from the previous years. Children and Counselors/Volunteers only will be staying overnight at Peaceable Kingdom. Parents will need to secure hotel accommodations for their overnight stay. The Hear Me Foundation website has a link to suggested accommodations in the area. Friday will be Family Fun Day at Peaceable Kingdom and Parent preparation and questions for Pete and Pam Wright for Saturday's private training. Camp Counselor (child care), lunch and dinner will be included for the whole family. Saturday's program will be another day of fun for the kids while their parents attend the private Wrightslaw training which will be held at Peaceable Kingdom. The training session will include all day training (8:00 a.m.- 4:30 p.m.), continental breakfast and lunch. Camp Hear Me 2007 will adjourn at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday.
