This program is designed to meet the needs of parents, advocates, attorneys, educators, health care providers, and others who represent the interests of children with disabilities and their families.

This informative one-day special education law and advocacy program focuses on four areas:

- Special education law, rights and responsibilities
- Tests and measurements to measure progress and regression
- SMART IEPs
- Instruction on tactics and strategies for effective advocacy

Participants will receive two books for use during the course:

- Wrightslaw: Special Education Law, 2nd Edition
- Wrightslaw: From Emotions to Advocacy, 2nd Edition

Lunch and break-time snacks are included in the registration fee.
