

It doesn't have to be that way!

Pat Howey is an advocate who has worked with families since 1986, helping parents resolve special education disputes with their school districts.

From Emotions To Advocacy

Pat has been part of Wrightslaw's Speakers Bureau for over 13 years. She will teach you how to be an effective part of your child's IEP team including:

- ◆ How to prepare for an IEP
- ◆ How to use the Bell Curve to understand your child's strengths and needs
- ◆ What a Parent Agenda is
- ◆ How to build healthy working relationships with school personnel
- ◆ The art of disagreeing
- ◆ How to document information that may prevent or resolve disputes
- ◆ How to develop SMART IEPs
- ◆ And more!

Dear Special Ed Parent, are you....

Frustrated?
Confused?

Have you ever wondered....

- ◆ Can the school do that?
- ◆ What can I do for my child who's fallen behind in Reading / Math?
- ◆ How can I get Extended School Year services?
- ◆ Can the school say they don't have the money?
- ◆ Should the school pay for outside evaluations?
- ◆ What is the school required by law to provide my child?
- ◆ Can the school suspend my child for "behavior problems"?
